

JOE SHIDEN WANTS YOU!

Declaration of Joependence

The American people have had it to here with the corruption and dirty politicians, and they've have been waiting anxiously for a decent president to grace the White House. The previous one left a bitter taste in their mouth as his whole shtick was about building a wall that could put nations in debt, so now they were praying for a genuine president. A president who puts this great nation first and not his pocket.

And so it was a dream come true for millions across the United States, and billions all over the world when the now President Joe Shiden won the election with a clean sweep. This happiness didn't extend to Donald J. Trump, however, as he was left shattered when he realized just how badly he had been defeated by "Sleepy Joe".

Joeconomics

- Initial Supply 175,000,000
- Circ Supply 81,000,000
- Burn 94,000,000

President Joe Shiden had a total of 81,000,000 votes, and it was his wish for that to be the circulating supply for $JSDN. 94,000,000 $JSDN will get burnt in tribute of the hard-working, degenerate Americans who lost their salaries to the Shogun dev.

There will be an 11% tax that will be imposed on every transaction, courtesy of the IRS. 4x% of this revenue will fuel the Federal Reserve so we can continue providing our great nation with a safer, more flexible, and more stable monetary and financial system. Also, a juicy stimulus check will get mailed directly to holders' wallets through the remaining 7x%.
